

Adrienne Arsht Center

FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS OF MIAMI-DADE COUNTY

THE TOP 10 MOST INSTAGRAMMED LOCATIONS AT THE ADRIENNE ARSHT CENTER

The Adrienne Arsht Center for the Performing Arts of Miami-Dade County was destined to be one of Miami's most recognizable buildings with its prime location on the historic Biscayne Boulevard in the heart of downtown Miami. The Center, designed by Cesar Pelli, is also home to several art installations offering its guests several photo-worthy opportunities. Below are some of our top 10 instagrammed locations.

- 1. The Neon Vortex by Jen Stark
Location: Ziff Ballet Opera House
One of the most popular selfie spots is tucked under the staircase between tiers one and two. The Neon Vortex, designed by Jen Stark, adds splashes of groovy colors to the Ziff Ballet Opera's sleek aesthetic.
- 2. BRAVA By Brad Kilgore
Location: Second Floor of Ziff Ballet Opera House
BRAVA By Brad Kilgore offers patrons an Italian-based, a-la-carte menu crafted by James Beard award finalist Chef Brad Kilgore, and posh dining aesthetics. The orchid wall inside the restaurant is almost as eye-catching as the chef's creative cuisine.
- 3. Illuminated Columns
Location: Ziff Ballet Opera House and John S. and James L. Knight Concert Hall Lobbies
No visit to the Arsht Center can be complete without snapping a pic of our twinkling columns in the lobbies of the Ziff Ballet Opera House and the John S. and James L. Knight Concert Hall.
- 4. View from the Porthole
Location: Ziff Ballet Opera House and John S. and James L. Knight Concert Hall
As you wait for the elevator in the tiers, take a look through one of the portholes for a different perspective of the lobbies.
- 5. Hibiscus Proscenium Curtain
Location: Ziff Ballet Opera House
If you're a theater-goer then you're probably guilty of taking the ultimate Instagram photo with the Playbill in front of the theater's curtain! Created by Robert Rahway Zakanitch, the Hibiscus Proscenium Curtain adds tropical, Floridian flare to the Ziff Ballet Opera House's modernistic interior aesthetic.
- 6. Acoustical Dome
Location: Ziff Ballet Opera House
If you look up from your seat, you'll see the Ziff Ballet Opera House's glittering and majestic Acoustical Dome.
- 7. John S. and James L. Knight Concert Hall
Location: Inside the concert hall
The acoustically superb Knight Concert Hall's wooden interior design is not only aesthetically warm and inviting, but also one of the most photographed concert halls in the city!
- 8. "Ways of Performing" Tile Mural by Cundo Bermudez
Location: Carnival Studio Theater – Ziff Ballet Opera House
Cundo Bermudez' "Ways of Performing" tile mural is one of the Center's most recognizable public art installations. This mural proves that there's no such thing as a "bad angle!"
- 9. Pharaoh's Dance by Gary Moore
Location: Parker and Vann Thomson Plaza for the Arts (Corner of NE 13th Street and 2nd Ave)
Pharaoh's Dance by Gary Moore is a fun and colorful photo opp. You can catch an aerial view of Pharaoh's Dance from The Patrons Club balcony located on the second floor of the Ziff Ballet Opera House.
- 10. Carnival Arts Bridge
Location: Over Biscayne Blvd, connecting the Ziff Ballet Opera House and Knight Concert Hall
As you make your way across to either the Ziff Ballet Opera House or the Knight Concert Hall, take a moment and enjoy the panoramic view of Downtown Miami!
